

VIOLENCE FREE HOME- A WOMEN'S RIGHT
A joint programme of the National Commission for Women (NCW), Delhi Police and Tata Institute of Social Sciences, (TISS) Mumbai.

The NCW is implementing the project with Delhi Police and TISS and is committed to work on the issue of violence against women. The NCW is confident that women will get the required assistance from trained personnel located in the Crime against Women Cells across Delhi. The scope of this programme is:

- rebuilding violated woman's self esteem, self worth and dignity
- offering the violated woman immediate services, based on her needs, such as carrying out counselling, arranging for shelter or medical aid, providing information on laws and her rights, harnessing police support
- creating awareness in the community on the issue of violence against women

About the services:

Trained social workers/ counsellors in the Crime against Women Cell (CAW Cell) help women and children facing violence by providing them with emotional support, assisting them in negotiations to stop violence, linkages to livelihood opportunities and providing them with legal knowledge. The processes are aimed towards achieving a violence free life for the woman.
