Provided that in making addition the Central Government or the State Government as the case may be may direct that the provisions of this Act shall apply to such classes of persons in respect of specified injuries only.

CHAPTER II. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

3. Employer's liability for compensation

(1) If personal injury is caused to a workman by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment his employer shall be liable to pay compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter :

Provided that the employer shall not be so liable -

(a) in respect of any injury which does not result in the total or partial disablement of the workman for a period exceeding three days;

(b) in respect of any injury not resulting in death or permanent total disablement caused by an accident which is directly attributable to - the workman having been at the time thereof under the influence of drink or drugs or the wilful disobedience of the workman to an order expressly given or to a rule expressly framed for the purpose of securing the safety of workmen or the wilful removal or disregard by the workman of any safety guard or other device he knew to have been provided for the purpose of securing the safety of workman. (2) If a workman employed in any employment specified in Part A of Schedule III contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment or if a workman whilst in the service of an employer in whose service he has been employed for a continuous period of not less than six months (which period shall not include a period of service under any other employer in the same kind of employment) in any employment specified in Part B of Schedule III contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment or if a workman whilst in the service of one or more employers in any employment specified in Part C of Schedule III for such continuous period as the Central Government may specify in respect of each such employment contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment the contracting of the disease shall be deemed to be as injury by accident within the meaning of this section and unless the contrary is proved the accident shall be deemed to have arisen out of and in the course of the employment :

Provided that if it proved - that a workman whilst in the service of one or more employers in any employment specified in Part C of Schedule III has contracted a disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment during a continuous period which is less than the period specified under this sub-section for that employment; and that the disease has arisen out of and in the course of the employment the contracting of such disease shall be deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section : Provided further that if it is proved that a workman who having served under any employer in any employment specified in Part B of Schedule III or who having served under one or more employers in any employment specified in Part C of that Schedule for a continuous period specified under this sub-section for that employment and he has after the cessation of such service contracted any disease specified in the said Part B or the said Part C as the case may be as an occupational disease peculiar to the employment and that such disease arose out of the employment the contracting of the disease shall be deemed to be injury by accident within the meaning of this section.

(2A) If a workman employed in any employment specified in Part C of Schedule III contracts any occupational disease peculiar to that employment the contracting whereof is deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section and such employment was under more than one employer all such employers shall be liable for the payment of the compensation in such proportion as the Commissioner may in the circumstances deem just.

(3) The Central Government or the State Government after giving by notification in the Official Gazette not less than three months' notice of its intention so to do may by a like notification add any description of employment to the employments specified in Schedule III and shall specify in the case of employments so added the diseases which shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employments respectively and thereupon the provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply in the case of a notification by the Central Government within the territories to which this Act extends or in case of and notification by the State Government within the State as if such diseases had been declared by this Act to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employments.

Save as provided by sub-sections (2), (2A) and (3) no compensation shall be payable to a workman in respect of any disease unless the disease is directly attributable to a specific injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any right to compensation on a workman in respect of any injury if he has instituted in a civil court a suit for damages in respect of the injury against the employer or any other person; and no suit for damages shall be maintainable by a workman in any court of law in respect of any injury – (a) if he has instituted a claim to compensation in respect of the injury before a Commissioner; or

(b) if an agreement has been come to between the workman and his employer providing for the payment of compensation in respect of the injury in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

4. Amount of compensation

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the amount of compensation shall be as follows namely :-

where death results from the injury an amount equal to fifty per cent of the monthly wages of the deceased workman multiplied by the relevant factor; or an amount of fifty thousand rupees whichever is more; where permanent total disablement results from the injury an amount equal to sixty per cent of the monthly wages of the injured workman multiplied by the relevant factor; or an amount of sixty thousand rupees whichever is more. Explanation I : For the purpose of clause (a) and clause (b) relevant factor in relation to a workman means the factor specified in the second column of Schedule IV against the entry in the first column of that Schedule specifying the number of years which are the same as the completed years of the age of the workman on his birthday immediately preceding the date on which the compensation fell due;

Explanation II : Where the monthly wages of a workman exceed two thousand rupees his monthly wages for the purposes of clause (a) and clause (b) shall be deemed to be two thousand rupees only;

(c) where permanent partial disablement results from the injury in the case of an injury specified in Part II of Schedule I such percentage of the compensation which would have been payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is specified therein as being the percentage of the loss of earning capacity caused by that injury; and in the case of an injury specified in Schedule I such percentage of the compensation payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is proportionate to the loss of earning capacity (as assessed by the qualified medical practitioner) permanently caused by the injury; Explanation I : Where more injuries than one are caused by the same accident the amount of compensation payable under this head shall be aggregated but not so in any case as to exceed the amount which would have been payable if permanent total disablement had resulted from the injuries.

Explanation II : In assessing the loss of earning capacity for the purpose of sub-clause (ii) the qualified medical practitioner shall have due regard to the percentages of loss of earning capacity in relation to different injuries specified in Schedule I;

(d) where temporary disablement whether total or partial results from the injury a half monthly payment of the sum equivalent to twenty five per cent of monthly wages of the workman to be paid in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) while fixing the amount of compensation payable to a workman in respect of an accident occurred outside India the Commissioner shall take into account the amount of compensation if any awarded to such workman in accordance with the law of the country in which the accident occurred and shall reduce the amount fixed by the amount of compensation awarded to the workman in accordance with the law of that country.

(2) The half-monthly payment referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (1) shall be payable on the sixteenth day - from the date of disablement where such disablement lasts for a period of twenty-eight days or more or after the expiry of a waiting period of three days from the date of disablement where such disablement lasts for a period of less than twenty-eight days; and thereafter half-monthly during the disablement or during a period of five years whichever period is shorter: Provided that - there shall be deducted from any lump sum or half monthly payments to which the workman is entitled the amount of any payment or allowance which the workman has received from the employer by way of compensation during the period of disablement prior to the receipt of such lump sum or of the first half monthly payment as the case may be; and no half monthly payment shall in any case exceed the amount if any by which half the amount of the monthly wages of the workman before the accident exceeds half the amount of such wages which he is earning after the accident. Explanation : Any payment or allowance which the workman has received from the employer towards his medical treatment shall not be deemed to be a payment or allowance received by him by way of compensation within the meaning of clause (a) of the proviso.

On the ceasing of the disablement before the date on which any half monthly payment falls due there shall be payable in respect of that half monthly a sum proportionate to the duration of the disablement in that half month. If the injury of the workman results in his death the employer shall in addition to the compensation under sub-section (1) deposit with the Commissioner a sum of one thousand rupees for payment of the same of the eldest surviving dependant of the workman towards the expenditure of the funeral of such workman or where the workman did not have a dependant or was not living with his dependant at the time of his death to the person who actually incurred such expenditure. 4A. Compensation to be paid when due and penalty for default Compensation under section 4 shall be paid as soon as it falls due. (2) In cases where the employer does not accept the liability for compensation to the extent claimed he shall be bound to make provisional payment based on the extent of liability which he accepts and such payment shall be deposited with the Commissioner or made to the workman as the case may be without prejudice to the right of the workman to make any further claim.

direct that the employer shall in addition to the amount of the arrears pay simple interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent annum or at such higher rate not exceeding the maximum of the lending rates of any scheduled bank as may be specified by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette on the amount due; and if in his opinion there is no jurisdiction for the delay direct that the employer shall in addition to the amount of the arrears and interest thereon pay a further sum not exceeding fifty per cent of such amount by way of penalty : Provided that an order for the payment of penalty shall not be passed under clause (b) without giving a reasonable opportunity to the employer to show cause why it should not be passed.

Explanation : For the purposes of this sub-section scheduled bank means a bank for the time being included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act 1934 (2 of 1934)

(3A) The interest payable under sub-section (3) shall be paid to the workman or his dependant as the case may be and the penalty shall be credited to the State Government.

Method of calculating wages In this Act and for the purpose thereof the expression monthly wages means the amount of wages deemed to be payable for a month's service (whether the wages are payable by the month or by whatever other period or at piece rates) and calculated as follows namely :-

where the workman has during a continuous period of not less than twelve months immediately preceding the accident been in the service of the employer who is liable to pay compensation the monthly wages of the workman shall be one-twelfth of the total wages which have fallen due for payment to him by the employer in the last twelve months of that period; where the whole of the continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident during which the workman was in the service of the employer who is liable to pay the compensation was less than one month the monthly wages of the workman shall be the average monthly amount which during the twelve months immediately preceding the accident was being earned by a workman employed on the same work by the same employer or if there was no workman so employed by a workman employed on similar work in the same locality; in other cases including cases in which it is not possible for want of necessary information to calculate the monthly wages under clause (b) the monthly wages shall be thirty times the total wages earned in respect of the last continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident from the employer who is liable to pay compensation divided by the number of days comprising such period.

Explanation : A period of service shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be continuous which has not been interrupted by a period of absence from work exceeding fourteen days.

6. Review Any half-monthly payment payable under this Act either under an agreement between the parties or under the order of a Commissioner may be reviewed by the Commissioner on the application either of the employer or of the workman accompanied by the certificate of a qualified medical practitioner that there has been a change in the condition of the workman or subject to rules made under this Act on application made without such certificate. (2) Any half-monthly payment may on review under this section subject to the provisions of this Act be continued increased decreased or ended or if the accident is found to have resulted in permanent disablement be converted to the lump sum to which the workman is entitled less any amount which he has already received by way of half-monthly payments.

7. Commutation of half-monthly payments Any right to receive half-monthly payments may by agreement between the parties or if the parties cannot agree and the payments have been continued for not less than six months on the application of either party to the Commissioner be redeemed by the payment of a lump sum of such amount as may be agreed to by the parties or determined by the Commissioner as the case may be.

8. Distribution of compensation (1) No payment of compensation in respect of a workman whose injury has resulted in death and no payment of a lump sum as compensation to a woman or a person under a legal disability shall be made otherwise than by deposit with the Commissioner and no such payment directly by an employer shall be deemed to be a payment of compensation :

Provided that in the case of a deceased workman an employer may make to any dependant advances on account of compensation of an amount equal to three months' wages of such workman and so much of such amount as does not exceed the compensation payable to that dependant shall be deducted by the Commissioner from such compensation and repaid to the employer.

Any other sum amounting to not less than ten rupees which is payable as compensation may be deposited with the Commissioner on behalf of the person entitled thereto. The receipt of the Commissioner shall be a sufficient discharge in respect of any compensation deposited with him. On the deposit of any money under sub-section (1) as compensation in respect of a deceased workman the Commissioner shall if he thinks necessary cause notice to be published or to be served on each dependant in such manner as he thinks fit calling upon the dependants to appear before him on such dates as he may fix for determining the distribution of the compensation. If the Commissioner is satisfied after any inquiry which he may deem necessary that no dependant exists he shall repay the balance of the money to the employer by whom it was paid. The Commissioner shall on application by the employer furnish a statement showing in detail all disbursements made. Compensation deposited in respect of a deceased workman shall subject to any deduction made under sub-section (4) be apportioned among the dependants of the deceased workman or any of them in such proportion as the Commissioner thinks fit or may in the discretion of the Commissioner be allotted to any one dependant. Where any compensation deposited with the Commissioner is payable to any person the Commissioner shall if the person to whom the compensation is payable is not a woman or a person under a legal disability and may in other cases pay the money to the person entitled thereto. Where any lump sum deposited with the Commissioner is payable to a woman or a person under a legal disability such sum may be invested applied or otherwise dealt with for the benefit of the woman or of such person during his disability in such manner as the Commissioner may direct; and where a half-monthly payment is payable to any person under a legal disability the Commissioner may of his own motion or on an application made to him in this behalf order that the payment be made during the disability to any dependant of the workman or to any other person whom the Commissioner thinks best fitted to provide for the welfare of the workman. Where on application made to him in this behalf or otherwise the Commissioner is satisfied that on account of neglect of children on the part of a parent or on account of the variation of the circumstances of any dependant or for any other sufficient cause an order of the Commissioner as to the distribution of any sum paid as compensation or as to the manner in which any sum payable to any such dependant is to be invested applied or otherwise dealt with ought to be varied the Commissioner may make such order for the variation of the former order as he thinks just in the circumstances of the case :

Provided that no such order prejudicial to any person shall be made unless such person has been given an opportunity of showing cause why the order should not be made or shall be made in and case in which it would involve the repayment by a dependant of any sum already paid to him.

(g) Where the Commissioner varies any order under sub-section (8) by reason of the fact that payment of compensation to any person has been obtained by fraud impersonation or other improper means any amount so paid to or on behalf of such person may be recovered in the manner hereinafter provided in section 31.

9. Compensation not to be assigned attached or charged Save as provided by this Act no lump sum or half-monthly payment payable under this Act shall in any way be capable of being assigned or charged or be liable to attachment or pass to any person other than the workman by operation of law nor shall any claim be set off against the same.

10. Notice and claim (1) No claim for compensation shall be entertained by a Commissioner unless notice of the accident has been given in the manner hereinafter provided as soon as practicable after the happening thereof and unless the claim is preferred before him within two years of the occurrence of the accident or in case of death within two years from the date of death :

Provided that where the accident is the contracting of a disease in respect of which the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 3 are applicable the accident shall be deemed to have occurred on the first of the days during which the workman was continuously absent from work in consequence of the disablement caused by the disease :

Provided further that in case of partial disablement due to the contracting of any such disease and which does not force the workman to absent himself from work the period of two years shall be counted from the day the workman gives notice of the disablement to his employer:

Provided further that if a workman who having been employed in an employment for a continuous period specified under sub-section (2) of section 3 in respect of that employment ceases to be so employed and develops symptoms of an occupational disease peculiar to that employment within two years of the cessation of employment the accident shall be deemed to have occurred on the day on which the symptoms were first detected:

Provided further that the want of or any defect or irregularity in a notice shall not be a bar to the entertainment of a claim -

(a) if the claim is preferred in respect of the death of a workman resulting from an accident which occurred on the premises of the employer or at any place where the workman at the time of the accident was working under the control of the employer or of any person employed by him and the workman died on such premises or at such place or on any premises belonging to the employer or died without having left the vicinity of the premises or place where the accident occurred or

(b) if the employer or any one of several employers or any person responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured workman was employed had knowledge of the accident from any other source at or about the time when it occurred :

Provided further that the Commissioner may entertain and decide any claim to compensation in any case notwithstanding that the notice has not been given or the claim has not been preferred in due time as provided in this sub-section if he is satisfied that the failure so to give the notice or prefer the claim as the case may be was due to sufficient cause.

(2) Every such notice shall give the name and address of the person injured and shall state in ordinary language the cause of the injury and the date on which the accident happened and shall be served on the employer or upon any one of several employers or upon any person responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured workman was employed.

(3) The State Government may require that any prescribed class of employers shall maintain at these premises at which workmen are employed a notice book in the prescribed form which shall be readily accessible at all reasonable times to any injuries workman employed on the premises and to any person acting bona fide on his behalf.

(4) A notice under this section may be served by delivering it at or sending it by registered post addressed to the residence or any office or place of business of the person on whom it is to be served or where a notice book is maintained by entry in the notice-book.

10A. Power to require from employers statements regarding fatal accident (1) Where a Commissioner receives information from any source that a workman has died as a result of an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment he may send by registered post a notice to the workman's employer requiring him to submit within thirty days of the service of the notice a statement in the prescribed form giving the circumstances attending the death of the workman and indicating whether in the opinion of the employer he is or is not liable to deposit compensation on account of the death.

(2) If the employer is of opinion that he is liable to deposit compensation he shall make the deposit within thirty days of the service of the notice.

(3) If the employer is of opinion that he is not liable to deposit compensation he shall in his statement indicate the grounds on which he disclaims liability.

(4) Where the employer has so disclaimed liability the Commissioner after such inquiry as he may think fit may inform any of the dependants of the deceased workman that it is open to the dependants to prefer a claim for compensation and may give them such other further information as he may think fit.

10B. Reports of fatal accidents and serious bodily injuries (1) Where by any law for the time being in force notice is required to be given to any authority by or on behalf of an employer of any accident occurring on his premises which results in death or serious bodily injury the person required to give the notice shall within seven days of the death or serious bodily injury send a report to the Commissioner giving the circumstances attending the death or serious bodily injury:

Provided that where the State Government has so prescribed the person required to give the notice may instead of sending such report to the Commissioner send it to the authority to whom he is required to give the notice.

Explanation: Serious bodily injury means an injury which involves or in all probability will involve the permanent loss of the use of or permanent injury to any limb or the permanent loss of or injury to the sight or hearing or the fracture of any limb or the enforced absence of the injured person from work for a period exceeding twenty days.

(2) The State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette extend the provisions of sub-section (1) to any class of premises other than those coming within the scope of that sub-section and may by such notification specify the person who shall send the report to the Commissioner.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to factories to which the Employees' State Insurance Act 1948 (34 of 1948) applies.

11. Medical examination (1) Where a workman has given notice of an accident he shall if the employer before the expiry of three days from the time at which service of the notice has been effected offers to have him examined free of charge by a qualified medical practitioner submit himself for such examination and any workman who is in receipt of a half-monthly payment under this Act shall if so required submit himself for such examination from time to time:

Provided that a workman shall not be required to submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner otherwise than in accordance with rules made under this Act or at more frequent intervals than may be prescribed.

(2) If a workman on being required to do so by employer under sub-section (1) or by the Commissioner at any time refuses to submit himself for examination by a qualified medical practitioner or in any way obstructs the same his right to compensation shall be suspended during the continuance of such refusal or obstruction unless in the case of refusal he was prevented by any sufficient cause from so submitting himself.

(3) If a workman before the expiry of the period within which he is liable under sub-section (1) to be required to submit himself for medical examination voluntarily leaves without having been so examined the vicinity of the place in which he was employed his right to compensation shall be suspended until he returns and offers himself for such examination.

Where a workman whose right to compensation has been suspended under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) dies without having submitted himself for medical examination as required by either of those sub-sections the Commissioner may if he thinks fit direct the payment of compensation to the dependants of the deceased workman. Where under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) a right to compensation is suspended no compensation shall be payable in respect of the period of suspension and if the period of suspension commences before the expiry of the waiting period referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 4 the waiting period shall be increased by the period during which the suspension continues. Where an injured workman has refused to be attended by a qualified medical practitioner whose services have been offered to him by the employer free of charge or having accepted such offer has deliberately disregarded the instructions of such medical practitioner then if it is proved that the workman has not thereafter been regularly attended by a qualified medical practitioner or having been so attended has deliberately failed to follow his instructions and that such refusal disregard or failure was unreasonable in the circumstances of the case and that the injury has been aggravated thereby the injury and resulting disablement shall be deemed to be of the same nature and duration as they might reasonably have been expected to be if the workman had been regularly attended by a qualified medical practitioner whose instructions he had followed and compensation if any shall be payable accordingly.

12. Contracting Where any person (hereinafter in this section referred to as the principal) in the course of or for the purposes of his trade or business contract with any other person (hereinafter in this section referred to as the contractor for the execution by or under the contractor of the whole or any part of any work which is ordinarily part of the trade or business of the principal the principal shall be liable to pay to any workman employed in the execution of the work any compensation which he would have been liable to pay if that workman had been immediately employed by him; and where compensation is claimed from the principal this Act shall apply as if references to the principal were substituted for references to the employer except that the amount of compensation shall be calculated with reference to the wages of the workman under the employer by whom he is immediately employed. Where the principal is liable to pay compensation under this section he shall be entitled to be indemnified by the contractor or any other person from whom the workman could have recovered compensation and where a contractor who is himself a principal is liable to pay compensation or to indemnify a principal under this section he shall be entitled to be indemnified by any person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the workman could have recovered compensation and all questions as to the right to and the amount of any such indemnity shall in default of agreement be settled by the Commissioner. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a workman from recovering compensation from the contractor instead of the principal. This section shall not apply in any case where the accident occurred elsewhere than on or about the premises on which the principal has undertaken or usually undertakes as the case may be to execute the work or which are otherwise under his control or management.

13. Remedies of employer against stranger Where a workman has recovered compensation in respect of any injury caused under circumstances creating a legal liability of some person other than the person by whom the compensation was paid to pay damages in respect thereof the person by whom the compensation was paid and any person who has been called on to pay an indemnity under section 12 shall be entitled to be indemnified by the person so liable to pay damages of aforesaid

14. Insolvency of employer Where any employer has entered into a contract with any insurers in respect of any liability under this Act to any workman then in the event of the employer becoming insolvent or making a compensation or scheme of arrangement with his creditors or if the employer is a company in the event of the company having commenced to be wound up the rights of the employer against the insurers as respects that liability shall notwithstanding anything in any law for the time being in force relating to insolvency or the winding up of companies be transferred to and vest in the workman and upon any such transfer the insurers shall have the same rights and remedies and be subject to the same liabilities as if they were the employer so however that the insurers shall not be under any greater liability to the workman than they would have been under the employer. If the liability of the insurers to the workman is less than the liability of the employer to the workman the workman may prove for the balance in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation. Where in any case such as is referred to in sub-section (1) the contract of the employer with the insurers to void or voidable by reason of non-compliance on the part of the employer with any terms or conditions of the contract (other than a stipulation for the payment of premia) the provisions of that sub-section shall apply as if the contract were not void or voidable and the insurers shall be entitled to prove in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation for the amount paid to the workman : Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in any case in which the workman fails to give notice to the insurers of the happening of the accident and of any resulting disablement as soon as practicable after he becomes aware of the institution of the insolvency or liquidation proceedings.

There shall be deemed to be included among the debts which under section 49 of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act 1909 (3 of 1909) or under section 61 of the Provincial Insolvency Act 1920 (5 of 1920) or under Section 530 of the Companies Act 1956 (1 of 1956) are in the distribution of the property of an insolvent or in the distribution of the assets of a company being wound up to be paid in priority to all other debts the amount due in respect of any compensation the liability where for accrued before the date of the order of adjudication of the insolvent or the date of the commencement of the winding up as the case may be and those Acts shall have effect accordingly. Where the compensation is a half-monthly payment the amount due in respect thereof shall for the purpose of this section be taken to be the amount of the lump sum for which the half-monthly payment could if redeemable be redeemed if application were made for that purpose under section 7 and a certificate of the Commissioner as to the amount of such sum shall be conclusive proof thereof. The provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply in the case of any amount for which an insurer is entitled to prove under sub-section (3) but otherwise those provisions shall not apply where the insolvent or the company being wound up has entered into such a contract with insurers as is referred to in sub-section (1). This section shall not apply where a company is wound up voluntarily merely for the purposes of reconstruction or of amalgamation with another company.
